Sister Wilene, named for Wilene Forrester, the only female member of Bill Monroe's Bluegrass Boys gives a nod to the country/bluegrass/Americana tradition with songs that will take you back to the days when country music was a pocketful of heartfelt ballads and great swing tunes, from Patsy Cline to Bob Wills; from honky-tonks to dance halls to front porches.

Kelly Mulhollan and Donna Stjerna are Still on the Hill, and they come to Glen Arbor direct from the Ozarks! They play a variety of instruments including acoustic guitar, banjo, fiddle, mandolin, and harmonica. Their repertoire consists of original, roots-based compositions they term "folkgrass", interspersed with new arrangements of traditional songs.

Claudia Schmidt

Folk/Jazz

Studio Stage, Lake Street Studios

Claudia Schmidt has been perfecting her craft for almost four decades. It's a quirky and wonderful hodge-podge of music, poetry, story, laughter, drama, and celebrating the moment. Her performances include original work along with very personal versions of the work of others; what you get is a unique look at the world from someone who says what she sees with clarity, humor, and wonder. Garrison Keillor has said "when Claudia sings a song, it stays sung".

► Sunday, July 25, 8:00

Mulebone

Studio Stage, Lake Street Studios

Mulebone is the duo of multi-instrumentalist, John Ragusa and roots music specialist, Hugh Pool. Their musical home is the traditional blues; sometimes they play it straight ahead, while at other moments they float above it, viewing and interpreting from a distant vantage point. John plays conch shell, Jews harp, cornet, all manner of flutes, and tin whistle. Hugh plays slide guitar boogies, one chord riffs a la Howlin' Wolf and blues of all shapes and colors.
